Make An Online Donation To Special Olympics Florida Now!

Your generosity enables people with intellectual disabilities to experience the power of sports every day. In doing so, you are helping change society's perceptions and treatment of people with intellectual disabilities -- and creating a better world for us all. But for every Special Olympics athlete, there are many more that we haven't reached yet. Donate and help us give the power of sport to one more person.

- Single Donation (including memorial and tribute gifts)
- Monthly Giving

Secure credit card donations can be made via any browser supporting the 'https' security protocol such as Microsoft Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, AOL's version 3.0 and higher, Spyglass, and others. If your browser doesn't support https, you will get an error message when trying to access the donation form.

Send A Donation To Special Olympics Florida Now!

If you would like to send us a donation in the mail as a personal contribution or tribute/memorial gift, you can send your check to the following address:

Special Olympics Florida
Development Dept.
1915 Don Wickham Drive
Clermont, FL 34711

Other Ways to Support Special Olympics Florida

Stock Donation

Your gift of stock can provide a simple, tax free opportunity for you to support Special Olympics.

Planned Giving

Making charitable contributions is an art - a creative process that adapts to the changing needs and wishes of the donor. Planned giving enables a donor to arrange charitable contributions in ways that maximize his or her personal objectives while minimizing after-tax cost. What are planned gifts? Planned gifts include gifts through your will, charitable gift annuities, gifts of life insurance, pooled income funds, and charitable trusts.

A planned gift to Special Olympics Florida helps to ensure the future of the services and programs we provide in your community and may further your financial goals. Depending on the assets and the gift arrangement selected, a donor can expect to obtain some or all of the following benefits:

- Fulfill philanthropic goals
- Reduce income tax through a deduction for the gift
- Avoid capital gain tax on gifts of long-term appreciated property
- Retain a stream of payments for life for the donor and other beneficiaries
- Increase disposable income
- Eliminate federal estate tax on property passing to charity upon donor's death
- Reduce cost and time in estate settlement

Create your own legacy – join The Champion's Society with a planned gift today!

Special Olympics
The Champion's Society

Bequest

Many of our supporters make charitable gifts by naming Special Olympics Florida as a beneficiary in their wills.

Life Income Gift

You irrevocably transfer some assets to the Special Olympics Florida now, and in return, you (and a survivor, if you wish) receive income for life.

Gift of Life Insurance

Some of our supporters no longer need their life insurance that was purchased years ago to provide for children or other family members, and donate the policy to the Special Olympics Florida.

Pooled Income Fund

Your gift of money, marketable securities, or both is invested together with similar gifts from other supporters.

Charitable Lead Trust

Individuals with very large estates can use a charitable lead trust to benefit Special Olympics Florida and pass principal to family members with little or no tax penalty.

Gifts of Retirement Plans

Your IRA assets will be transferred to a charitable remainder trust, the trust will provide life income to the beneficiary, and then an eventual gift to Special Olympics Florida.

Want More Information on Donating?

Learn about additional ways to donate to Special Olympics .

Feel free to contact Special Olympics Florida at 352-243-9536 or email us.

Joomla SEF URLs by Artio